Background

Show Your Local Love Day

Correspondence was received from United Way Greater Toronto requesting a proclamation for the date of September 23, 2022.

United Way Greater Toronto works to ensure that everyone has access to the programs and services they need to thrive. The organization hopes that a proclamation would help raise awareness about United Way's commitment to community and building lasting solutions to combat poverty and inequality in the GTA.

Council has previously granted this request.

Imagine a Day Without Water

Correspondence was received from the Environmental Services Department requesting a proclamation for the date of October 20, 2022.

This is a day of education and advocacy to consider how essential and invaluable clean, safe drinking water is for the community.

Council has previously granted this request.
