

11244 Keele: East elevation, 2004 photo

11244 Keele Street: East elevation, facing Keele Street (Source: Cultural Heritage Evaluation Report, A.S.I. 2022)

11244 Keele Street: South elevation (Source: Cultural Heritage Evaluation Report, A.S.I. 2022)

11244 Keele Street: South and east elevations (Source – Cultural Heritage Evaluation Report, A.S.I. 2022)

11244 Keele Street: South and east elevations, including view of addition, from Keele Street

11244 Keele Street: North elevation (Source – Cultural Heritage Evaluation Report, A.S.I. 2022)

11244 Keele Street: Bay window on the east elevation (Source – Cultural Heritage Evaluation Report, A.S.I. 2022)

11244 Keele Street: Second floor window on gable end of east elevation, with decorative wooden fascia (Source – Cultural Heritage Evaluation Report, A.S.I. 2022)

Lot 29 Con. 4 East $\frac{1}{2}$

Original owner: Charles Nixon

Building: Farmhouse

Date: pre-1878

Condition: Good

Notes: ON the southeast corner of this lot, (Charles Son or brother of William Nixon one of the first trustees for Hope Methodist) built the second Hope
Methodist church