I am happy that during the May 22, 2024 Council meeting, Vaughan Council unanimously passed Mayor Del Luca's Member's Resolution, which directs City staff to develop a by-law aimed at protecting Vaughan's places of worship, schools, childcare facilities, and hospital from protests that intimidate, or incite hatred, intolerance, and violence.

I am also happy to hear that City staff have since developed the proposed by-law, which will be presented to City Council at the Committee of the Whole meeting scheduled for June 18th, 2024.

This will surely go a long way towards making Vaughan a safer place.
