

MEMBER'S RESOLUTION

Meeting/Date	Council – September 29, 2020
Title:	Orange Shirt Day in the City of Vaughan
Submitted by:	Mayor Maurizio Bevilacqua
Whereas, Orange Shirt Day is a legacy of the St. Joseph Mission residential school commemoration event held in Williams Lake in the spring of 2013, which was inspired by Phyllis (Jack) Webstad's account of losing her shiny new orange shirt on her first day of school at the Mission. The Orange Shirt is now used as a vivid reminder of the need for ongoing discussions and work towards Truth and Reconciliation; Whereas, Orange Shirt Day is an opportunity for First Nations, local governments, schools and community agencies to come together in the spirit of reconciliation and hope for generations of children to come. It is recognized to honour the legacy of the Indian Residential School Survivors, their families and communities, as well as to remember those who died in the residential school system, which according to the official apology issued by the Federal government in 2008, "were created to remove and isolate children from the influence of their homes, families, traditions and cultures, and to assimilate them into the dominant culture."; Whereas, Orange Shirt Day is a time to educate people and promote awareness about the Indian Residential School System and the impact this system still has on Indigenous communities in Canada today. Whereas, Orange Shirt Day recognizes one of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's recommendations for a "National Day to honour survivors, their families and communities, and ensure that public commemoration of the history and legacy of residential schools remains a vital component of the reconciliation process." It is therefore recommended that: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The Mayor proclaim September 30 Orange Shirt Day in Vaughan;2. That the proclamation be posted on the City's website and the Corporate and Strategic Communications department be directed to promote the proclamation on corporate communications channels.

Respectfully submitted,

Mayor Maurizio Bevilacqua
