POLICY STATEMENT

The Audit Committee is a decision-making committee who performs oversight of the City's governance, risk management and internal control practices.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this document is to assist the Audit Committee in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities for the financial reporting process, the system of internal control, the audit process and the City's process of monitoring compliance with laws, regulations and the City's code of conduct.

SCOPE

The objective of the Audit Committee is to assist Council in the discharge of governance, accountability and controllership responsibilities by ensuring risks are being appropriately addressed through strong governance, a risk/control and compliance framework, appropriate stewardship and an effective internal audit activity.

This includes reviewing and advising on:

1. The integrity, quality and transparency of the City's financial, management and operational information.
2. The effectiveness of the financial and management reporting processes.
3. The effectiveness of risk management and control processes and practices.

4. The performance of the Internal Audit activity and assessing the effectiveness of the External Audit function.
5. Ethical business conduct and compliance with the City of Vaughan's Employee Code of Conduct.

LEGISLATIVE REQUIREMENTS

1. Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, R.S.O. 1990.
2. Municipal Act, 2001, as amended.

DEFINITIONS

1. Assurance: An objective examination of evidence for the purpose of providing an independent assessment on governance, risk management, and control processes for the organization and that the results can be relied upon for supporting informed decision making.
2. Compliance: Conformity and adherence to policies, plans, procedures, laws, regulations, contracts or other requirements.
3. Control Environment: The attitude and actions of the Board/Council and Management regarding the significance of control within the organization. The control environment provides the discipline and structure for the achievement of the primary objectives of the system of internal control. The control environment includes the following elements:
  - 3.1. Integrity and ethical values.
  - 3.2. Management's philosophy and operating style.
  - 3.3. Organizational structure.
  - 3.4. Assignment of authority and responsibility.
  - 3.5. Human resource policies and practices.
  - 3.6. Competence of personnel.
4. Engagement: A specific Internal Audit assignment, task or review activity, such as an internal audit, control self-assessment review, fraud examination or consultancy. An engagement may include multiple tasks or activities designed to accomplish a specific set of related objectives.
5. Ethics: Conception of what is right and fair conduct or behaviour. Ethics can also be equated with the concept of morals; one's ability to choose between right and wrong, good and bad, acceptable and unacceptable.
6. Fraud: Any illegal acts characterized by deceit, concealment or violation of trust. These acts are not dependent upon the application of threat of violence or of physical force. Frauds are perpetrated by parties and organizations to obtain money, property or services, to avoid payment or loss of services, or to secure personal or business advantage.

- 7. Governance: The combination of processes and structures implemented by the governing body in order to inform, direct, manage and monitor the activities of the organization toward the achievement of its objectives.
- 8. Independence: The freedom from conditions that threaten objectivity or the appearance of objectivity. Such threats to objectivity must be managed at the individual auditor, engagement, functional and organizational levels.
- 9. Objectivity: An unbiased mental attitude that allows Internal Auditors to perform engagements in such a manner that they have an honest belief in their work product and that no significant quality compromises are made. Objectivity requires Internal Auditors not to subordinate their judgment on audit matters to that of others.
- 10. Risk: The possibility that events will occur and affect the achievement of strategy and business objectives.
- 11. Stewardship: To hold something in trust for another. The activity or job of protecting and being responsible for something.

POLICY

1. Authority

The Audit Committee acts as a forum for communication among Council, Management, Internal Audit and the External Auditors. The Audit Committee, within the scope of its roles and responsibilities, is authorized to:

- 1.1. Authorize investigations into any matters it deems necessary.
- 1.2. Obtain any information it needs from Internal Audit, the External Auditor and Management.
- 1.3. Request the attendance of any employee or external party at Audit Committee meetings.
- 1.4. Discuss any matters with the Director, Internal Audit.

2. Composition, Eligibility of Independent Members of the Public & Election of Chair and Vice-Chair

The Audit Committee shall be comprised of a maximum of 4 Members of Council plus a maximum of 2 qualified independent members of the public. All Audit Committee members will have full voting privileges. Audit Committee members shall be appointed by Council, based on the Term of Council, or until successors are appointed. If an Audit Committee member ceases to be a member before the expiration of their term, Council will appoint another eligible person for the remainder of the term.

Audit Committee members are expected to gain familiarity with the City's Audit Committee Charter, Internal Audit Policy and the City's Procedure By-law. Members will be expected to contribute their expertise actively during meetings of the Audit Committee.

NON-ELECTED MEMBER SELECTION PROCESS

The Audit Committee Charter and a posting outlining the eligibility criteria and desired competencies for the position will be posted on the City of Vaughan's website. Advertisements may also be placed in local newspapers.

Applicants will be required to communicate their qualifications and experience in a cover letter and resume.

The Director of Internal Audit will review all the applications and develop a short-list of prospective candidates based on those applicants whose qualifications best meets the eligibility and desired competencies for the position. The short-listed candidates will be contacted by the Office of the City Clerk to attend an in person or virtual interview. The interview panel will include the City Clerk, the Director of Internal Audit and the Deputy City Manager, Corporate Services, City Treasurer and CFO.

After the interview is complete, the Interview Panel shall forward a report to Committee of the Whole – Closed Session with a recommendation regarding the suitability of the prospective candidates. Council shall appoint the non-elected members to the Audit Committee.

The term of membership for new members appointed through this process will coincide with the term of Council.

Non-elected members of the Audit Committee will serve without remuneration.

ELECTION OF CHAIR AND VICE-CHAIR

The Audit Committee will elect from its members a Chair and Vice-Chair. Only Members of Council are eligible to hold these positions. The election will be held at the Audit Committee's first meeting of a new term. In the event that neither the Chair or Vice-Chair is in attendance at a meeting, the members in attendance shall elect a Chair for that meeting.

The majority of members, including the Chair, shall constitute quorum.

3. Meetings

The Audit Committee will be scheduled to meet a minimum of five times each year in order to provide Council with timely information. Audit Committee meetings will be scheduled in January, April, June, September and November. Additional Audit Committee meetings may be held at the recommendation of the Director of Internal Audit, the External Auditor, or by call of the Audit Committee Chairperson or the City Clerk.

Meetings are to be open to the public in accordance with the Municipal Act, 2001.

For the consideration of confidential matters, the Audit Committee has the authority under the City's Procedure By-Law and the Municipal Act, 2001 to go into closed session.
